FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unightly Spots.

How to Remove Freckles
The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her skin is, the sun and wind have a strong tendency to make her freckles.

Fortunately for her peace of mind the prescription of a little double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength ointment should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and rub it on the freckles. Money back if it fails.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs"
Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish and much more.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breathless, restless, does not eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs. Then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well playful child again. A thorough inside cleansing is oftentimes all that is necessary to should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of California Syrup of Figs, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company. —Adv.

YOU CANNOT CURE CHRONIC ECZEMA IN ONE DAY

SUGGESTIONS TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop." When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. Maxwell did. She says:—

"I keep house for my little family of three, and became completely run-down. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep. Finally I was unable to do any housework. A friend advised me to try Vinol. I did so and, improved rapidly. It toned up my system, I regained my strength, am no longer nervous, sleep well, and do all my housework."

Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Montgomery, Ala.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to the medicinal extracts of fresh cod liver, tongue and beef, pentone, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength-giving tonics.

So many women like the above are continually coming to our attention, that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. The Laughlin Drug Company.—Adv.

YOU CANNOT CURE CHRONIC ECZEMA IN ONE DAY

A deep burn will not heal overnight, nor will diseased skin become clean and new after one treatment, no matter what remedy is used. That's common sense. Common sense and the common sense of Nature's "first aids." We want you to know that you can easily stop that torturing itch and that Ue-nol will do it almost at once. But it won't be done in one day. For months you have been troubled for months with eczema. Don't expect a few short days of even the most careful treatment to cure you.

Say to yourself: "Here is where Vinol has a fair chance to build up healthy tissue." And then let this wonderful, antiseptic ointment get in its soothing, healing work. Don't doubt. Just give Vinol and Nature a chance. That combination will do wonders.

A liberal supply of Vinol may be had from A. A. Clarke for not more than 50 cents, with a money-back guarantee. If it does not do all that is claimed for it, Liberal trial sample sent free on request by Vinol Products Co., Inc., Dept. 1X9, Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

INVASION NOT INTERVENTION.

It is reported that Mexico recently armed intervention.

Mexican sentiment is perhaps very much divided on this point. The population of Mexico is made up of classes unfamiliar to the average citizen of this country. There is a well defined aristocracy of wealth and family, a growing mercantile interest, a strong and active bourgeoisie, all standing upon a prehistoric foundation. Since the rebellion against Diaz, the bourgeoisie class has been recruited freely from the poor, and the simple people who were known, no thought but to now prefer the roving life of the fighting factionalist.

It is this sentiment, which most strongly resents American interference. A great many of the Mexican factionalists would prefer to fight on forever, if the life continued to be one long round of pillage and plunder. This sentiment is not new to Mexico. It has obtained there on other occasions. Civilization and orderly government came only after some strong man rose up to lead a movement to law and order, and held it down until the people were ready to accept it. The country will have to accept it, but whether the United States may help in the matter is doubtful.

The Mexican people are not of the highest order of intelligence, and what he lacks in discrimination he makes up in passion. He is a creature of moods. Jealousy of the Gringos is one of them. We may punish Villa and restore the semblance of order in Mexico, but we cannot maintain it unless we had an armed soldier behind every cactus bush.

The invasion of Mexico should be understood to be for the purpose of punishing an enemy of the United States, not with the intention of attempting to regulate Mexican affairs.

MINING STANDARDS.

Coke operators and mine owners generally are hopeful that the movement inaugurated by state and federal officials at their recent conference at Washington, to standardize and simplify mine reports, laws and regulations will be given such impetus that the objects sought will be accomplished at the earliest possible date. If the committee, of which Chief Forester of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Mines is chairman, applies itself diligently to the task of preparing revised report forms, there is little doubt that the much needed reform in this direction will soon be effected.

The simplification of reports intended to provide statistical information will be an initial movement in the standardization of coal mining methods, but of much less importance than bringing the conflicting and widely differing state mining laws and regulations into harmony. This work is to be undertaken by the Bureau of Mines which will draft, standardize and issue regulations to be later considered by mining men with a view to agreement as to general provisions and subsequent incorporation into law. With its wide and intimate knowledge of coal mining conditions throughout the country the bureau will doubtless be able to prepare a simple and effective code within a comparatively short time.

The business of coal mining has become so much more complex than formerly, and has been subjected to more or less unnecessary regulation by the several state legislatures, some of whom have not been wholly conversant with the needs of the industry. Every intelligent effort in the direction of simplification will be gladly welcomed by operators and mine owners. The adoption of standard reports, standard laws, standard rules and regulations and a standard system of danger signals, will constitute one of the most significant forward steps that has been taken in behalf of the industry as a whole during its history.

Senator Lodge said President Wilson is the worst since Uncle Abner Buchanan. President Buchanan was Pennsylvania's only President and a bachelor at that. He was also a Democrat. That was the worst sin. Had he been a Republican the nation might have been saved a great deal of blood and treasure, especially if he had been a President of Preparedness.

Villa is reported to be on the run.

Return free delivery out of Connelville is over some long routes. The Government ought to arrange the routes for automobile delivery and pay for the service accordingly. If the Democratic administration wants to be truly progressive this is its opportunity.

Connellsville still has some snow to shovel.

Edin go bright!

We are all more or less (rich) at all times, but on Saint Patrick's Day we make it unanimous.

It will not be much of a trick to turn the horse fire engine into a motor truck.

The city authorities are getting ready for the spring and summer street paving campaign. Nothing like promptness and preparedness in public affairs.

Winter is hanging on to the end of its schedule, and it is to be hoped that it does not hang around any more when spring comes.

Coal deals continue to be active in Somerset county without the aid or consent of any syndicate.

"Should Not This Condition Be Relieved?"

ARTICLE IV

Should the people of Connelville authorize the present School Board to borrow money to the extent of $250,000.00; the money so secured to be used for the purpose of advancing the interests of the parents and school children of Connelville educationally?

1st—During the past five years, the average yearly increase in the enrollment of the Connelville Public Schools has been 120. This means practically three additional school rooms each year.

2nd—A portable building is being used to relieve congestion in the Second Ward school building, it being impossible to place any more children in the eight rooms of the present structure. Seven grades are being taught in the Second Ward.

3rd—Six grades are being taught in the Third Ward school building, and the building is now accommodating all the children that it is possible for it to accommodate.

4th—The Fourth Ward school building is filled to the capacity, it having been necessary for them to abandon the sixth grade of that building, sending one-third of the sixth grade pupils to the Second Ward, one-third to the Third Ward, and one-third to the South Side.

5th—The South Side, which when it was built caused considerable comment as to the size, is now filled to capacity, it being practically impossible to take care of more children there. Eight grades are being taught in the twelve rooms of that building.

6th—The West Side has one vacant room, it being the only vacant room in the City of Connelville. The Fourth Ward building, the Fourth street building, West Side, and the Seventh street building, West Side, are practically unfit for modern school purposes, the sanitary and ventilating systems being inadequate for school purposes, to say nothing of the fire trap conditions existing therein.

7th—In the High School the enrollment has grown from 237 to 483 during the last five years. This year's Senior class will number about seventy, while the present eighth grade enrollment is 172, meaning a net increase of about 100 in the High School next year. The laboratories are now occupied to their capacity, making it impossible to properly provide for the increasing enrollment in many departments until more room is provided.

8th—Manual Training and Domestic Science departments are taught in the cellar of the Carnegie Free Library. These rooms are inadequate for the proper use and extension of those departments.

9th—The old heating system (there is no ventilating system) in the Fourth Ward building is antiquated and entirely unsatisfactory for that purpose. The children who are near the steam pipes passing round the two sides of the room are in discomfort during the entire school session. In the two West Side buildings, the same conditions obtain.

10th—The Fourth Ward school building contains no toilets or sanitary fixtures whatever. The Fourth Ward building, the Fourth street building and the Seventh street building, West Side, are the least modern of our buildings and we deem them unsuited for a school system in a city like Connelville.

The above states a condition that has grown up during a period of years. The present Board believes it is doing its duty in acquainting the public with the facts, and in asking the people how the present condition shall be overcome and how similar conditions shall be prevented in the future.

The night truckers are helping greatly in keeping the freight house of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad clear, before they were put on the business was so heavy that the day crew was unable to handle the work.

No other engine of the "B" type have been brought here as yet, excepting No. 9022 that made the first run and which has been pulling trains back and forth over the mountains since then. The other engines are at Cumberland and will be put on the Connettsville division as soon as some new Mallet engines, ordered by the Baltimore & Ohio some time ago, arrive.

PROF. STUART FINDS RELIEF FROM CATARRH

Well-Known Instructor of Mathematics in Erie High School Praises Tannic

Prof. R. R. Stuart, teacher of mathematics in the Erie High School, who resides at 131 E. Sixth avenue, Erie, Pa., made the following interesting statement regarding the benefits he received from Tannic, the celebrated new combination, tonic and cathartic, which is now being so widely discussed and distributed in this city and vicinity.

Prof. Stuart said: "I have suffered intensely from both bronchitis and nasal catarrh. I had a severe case of indigestion which caused me equally as much annoyance and inconvenience.

"My symptoms were pain in my abdomen, a distressed feeling after eating, susceptibility to cold, inflamed frontal sinuses and nasal passages, discharges of catarrhal mucus, and an offensive breath.

"On November 25, my attention was attracted to the Tannic advertisement in the Erie newspapers. I concluded to test the new medicine.

"Within three days' time, after beginning the use of Tannic, I noted a marked improvement in my condition. The inflammation has disappeared from my bronchial tubes and nasal passages, my indigestion is almost perfect, and I am generally better.

"I recently fell and broke my arm. I lost much strength as a result of this accident. Tannic has been a great aid in recovering that lost strength."

Tannic is now sold in Connettsville by The Connettsville Drug Co., where the premier preparation can be had.—Adv.

DON'T GO TO BED WITH COLD FEET

Says: "Often Urines on Attacks of Acute Rheumatism."

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and people who are subject to attacks of rheumatism should never go to bed with cold feet. A whole lot is being said about taking salts and effervescent tablets for rheumatism and similar, but these who suffer sharp twinges and painful swollen joints need something powerful to overcome their piteous suffering.

And brand-named druggists will tell you that one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day is driving more rheumatism out of afflicted people than all the rest of a series of advertisements the American Steel Foundries Company at Sharon, Pa., will substitute powdered coal for oil as fuel in open hearth furnaces.

INDOOR LIFE MAKES FAT

Try Off of Kernels to Keep Weight Down or to Reduce Superfluous Fat.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to avoid acquiring over-fatness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air is said to weaken the oxygen carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to purify the muscles and vitality and the formation of unhealthy and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight, you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who has noticed in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to A. A. Clarke a good druggist, and get a box of oil of Kereon capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night. Even a few days treatment will be reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy; footsteps become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of Kereon is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.—Adv.

She Likes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy better than any other for children because, it gives the quickest relief. I have about the only one they will take willingly," writes Mrs. James Kern, Manchester, N. Y. "It is equally good for colds and croup and is a sure remedy for all the cough I can say for it. I am never without it in the house for it is invaluable when needed." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

"ANURIC!" THE NEWEST DISCOVERY IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Doctor Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—stiff joints, swelling, uric acid, frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear. Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Doctor Pierce for a free sample. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your urine and describe symptoms. Doctor Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you, without fee or charge.

NOTE.—French scientists affirm that "Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than litlin in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health by conscientiously using one box or more in extreme cases—as "Anuric" (thanks to Doctor Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the original Little Liver Pills. One Little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

Parents Should Know This Splendid Remedy

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva P. Galt, 517 10th st., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or mercuric drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends to strengthen the impaired bowel action and restore normal regularity. It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with no unpleasant after effects, "griping" or "straining." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin costs only 50 cents a bottle and can be procured at any drug store. To obtain a trial bottle, free of charge, write to Dr. W. B. LOWER COAL RATES.

Give a Boost to Coke Operations in the Alabama Field.

The Louisville & Nashville railroad, which serves the coking field of Alabama, has published its "milling in transit" rate on coal for use in coking, establishing a uniform rate of 37 1/2¢ per ton on coal, for coking purposes, for shipment to ovens within a zone of 25 miles. This rate, for comparison, is 30¢ for 35¢, which is said to have worked a hardship.

A correspondent of the Daily Iron Trade writes that coke companies "to be the feature of the industrial situation in the Birmingham district. A NOVEL

GEORGE AGNEW CHAMBERLAIN

COPYRIGHT, BY THE CENTURY CO.

They were to be gone two days and Gerry left the farm in charge of his foreman to go and spend the time with Lieber and Kemp. He found Kemp in a sort of controlled confusion over the greatest shipment of commercial goods the trade had ever known. Just after Gerry's arrival two men appeared bearing a monster plant of over two hundred leaves strung, like the grape cluster of Ecololi, on a pole. Kemp's deep-set eyes seemed to grow out of his head as he stared at the monster. "Hill!" he yelled and rushed out to the corral where he threw himself on to an astonished helper. For one second he squinted and then Kemp pointed off on the fire of his better scrambled free from the fence and tore, wild-eyed, out into the desert. Laughter rang from every side. Three herders threw themselves on to their horses and rode, shouting, after the put it on, and walked sedately over to the veranda. There was only a faint glint in his eye as he bought the monster plant to crown the monster ship-ment.

Chapter XXII

That dry season saw the beginning of a drought that will long hold the blackest page in the annals of the San Francisco basin. It seemed but days after the rains when the sparse grass and new-leaved bushes of the wilderness began to shrivel up. Day after day the sun poured down from the horizon to the sky, his first level rays searching out the scant, stored moisture of the hardy brush, and the very sap of the willow trees. While the water still sat in the bushes, weak and turned to enclose eye and nostrils. They broke down the sickly branches with their hooves and rubbed them in the sand to free them of the worst of the heat. Herders rode the rounds on week-long horses and dismounted at intervals to pull out spines from the snouts of passive, panting cows. Bulls died of broken pride. The river-gent went to the river to get the great river—was no longer great. It gurgled with a weak voice from deep down in the gorge. Gerry watched its falling level with anxious eye and one day sent an urgent call to Lieber for help.

Lieber came. He brought with him an army, every man bearing with him the tool that had come nearest to his hand. Spades were for and hoes; the bright blades of a pick or two caught the light like leucis. The men depended on the heavy, sharp knives they carried at their sides. They looked like an army of samurai as they swarmed into the ditch and began to dig. In two days they had sunk it to the bottom of the gully. When they finished Gerry rode back with them to help bring down Lieber's weakening stock.

Kemp had stayed in sole possession of Lieber's. Digging was not in his line, so he had volunteered to hold the fort against the return of the garrison. He welcomed Lieber and Gerry to a supper of his own making in approved cowboy style: sour-dough biscuits made by a monster hand, steaks cut from a freshly killed calf and fried before toughness set in, a pile of creamy mashed spuds. There was a homeliness about the meal that made them eat in silence. They felt as though for years they had been worshipping false culinary gods. The pile of steaks, the heaped potatoes, the hot biscuits, were exiles, strayed into a land of pepper sauce and garlic. The supper seemed to the three men to take on a personality and to be in ease, but it was they that were ill at ease for the supper reminded them that they were exiles.

The silence on the veranda that night was even longer than usual. Gerry's mind went back to French book that he had bought in desperation at Pannambuco. He had ploughed through half of it and with a catch in his thought he remembered that it lay open on the table when he left his room in Pannambuco on the morning of mornings that had broken life in two. Some of its phrases, come over and over again in his struggle with the half-forgotten idiom, came back to him. "Id n'écrit est de temps, la silence de l'éternité." He smiled to himself at the twisted meaning the lone silence of his companion gave to the words.

Then the smile left his face. He re-

Sick People Sometimes Die From Lack of a Good Stimulant

Especially is this true in grip and pneumonia, for they are infectious diseases, which attack weak and strong alike. Serious complications are liable to develop in the course of the disease, as grip settles in the weakest part of the system, sometimes the kidneys, the brain, the stomach or the heart, resulting often in heart failure, but the most dreaded of all, pneumonia, which is particularly fatal when arising from grip. As one able medical writer says:

"In all severe types of pneumonia there are two sources of danger—heart insufficiency, and high temperature. A large portion of deaths from pneumonia directly result from heart failure."

judiciously used, is one of the most efficient means of preventing or overcoming it.

The reason it is a remarkable remedy in the treatment and relief of grip, cough, colds, influenza, bronchitis, catarrh, pneumonia, and all diseases of the throat and lungs, is that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey aids in keeping the digestive functions in healthy condition so that the body gets the necessary food and strength from food eaten—enabling it to throw off disease germs. For more than half a century it has brought the blessings of health to overworked men, delicate women and the sickly, who find in Duffy's the strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them.

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous and kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I was a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a waking nightmare and life was a burden to me until I saw my husband's sister told me that if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do. I will always praise it whenever I go."—Mrs. C. O. Lowmyer, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

RAILROAD BUYING A SAFE INDEX OF THE STEEL TRADE

Observers Believe That the Present Active Movement Will

CONTINUE TWO OR THREE YEARS

Regardless of the Duration of the European War or of Price Levels, in Which Case Railroads Will Need
Steel and Furnaces Will Need Coke.

The degree of activity displayed by the railroads in buying steel, of which they are the largest single consumer, has become to be regarded as a measure of the prosperity of the steel trade. If the transportation interests restrict their purchases of steel and other materials, and maintenance supplies to bare necessities, demand lowest prices, and require delivery within a comparatively limited period, it is assumed by trade observers that the steel and iron industry will have no unusual or long continued demands upon productive capacity.

If, on the other hand, the railroads enter the market freely, underbid by high or rising prices, and place large orders with already overcrowded mills for delivery far in advance, such action is taken as evidence of a firm faith in the stability of trade conditions as they exist at the time and a promise of their continuation. If not their further improvement.

Application of these rules to present and prospective market features, supplemented by information concerning the scope of projected plans of railroad improvements, are indications to men who are in close touch with the railroad situation that the activity in railroad buying will be continued for two or possibly three years. The increase in railroad earnings has appreciated the investment value of railroad securities and made the problem of financing much easier. This development alone portends the revival of a number of important extension projects that have long been in abeyance, as well as the preparation of plans for the construction of several hundred miles of new lines, not to mention much needed and long-delayed betterments. Taken in connection with the recent and present free buying of new equipment and maintenance supplies, for both prompt and deferred delivery, all indications point to a long period of large demand by the railroads upon the steel mills.

"Steel men who have given attention to this factor," says The Daily Iron Trade, "believe the steel mills of this country will not see daylight for two or three years at best, regardless of the duration of the war or of price levels. Although prices now are high it is believed by well-informed men that they may go to double present quotations before the crest is reached. With large traffic offering and almost unlimited power, increased and with earnings showing relative increase, railroads can go forward in development work which is necessary to continued prosperity. In working out this problem the railroads necessarily must have the help of steel producing interests, which will profit largely by the immense volume of business offering from this source."

The steel mills in turn must have coke which the Connellsville region is ready to supply in ever-increasing volume than the railroads have recently been able to carry to the mills.

THE GREAT KIDNEY MEDICINE FULFILLS ITS MISSION

I was afflicted with bladder trouble. I suffered such great pain that the doctor had to take my urine. After the doctor had treated me for two weeks, I did not get any better. Remembering that a few doses of Dr. Kliner's Swamp Root completely relieved my mother-in-law, after all the doctors who were called on her case had failed to do her any good, I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Swamp Root, which he did, and I took it and threw the doctors' prescriptions away. Because immediately after I started taking Dr. Kliner's Swamp Root I was greatly relieved. My husband was so pleased he said I should take one dozen bottles of Swamp Root, but by the time I had taken seven bottles I was completely restored to health. That was six years ago and I have not taken any medicine since. My weight is 165 pounds, have three children, do my own work in a house of 12 rooms and keep laundry. Very truly yours,

MACCABEE'S WIN

Defeat First Uniontown West End Team, 22-15.

The Maccabee basketball team defeated the West End team of Uniontown on the Maccabee floor last evening, 22-15. The Maccabees played better than at any time this season. The West End team has a reputation of having only been defeated once this season and the Maccabees in winning made the second.

By winning this game the Maccabees made their sixth victory and have been defeated three times. The defeats have been close ones, only a point or two separating "the" locals from the winning score.

Next Thursday evening the Maccabees will play the Youngwood basketball five. A preliminary game will be played between the girls of the Connellsville high school and the girls of the Dunbar township high school team.

In the preliminary game the Overholt Blues defeated the Overholt Reds by a score of 21-20.
